

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Classic Cupboards. Founded in 1983, Classic Cupboards is now a second-generation, family-owned business that specializes in customized cabinetry and design services.

Classic Cupboards has always focused on tailoring products and services to the needs of customers, creating customizable cabinetry. The team helps with planning and designing different remodeling projects including kitchens, bathrooms, laundry rooms, bars, home offices and more. No matter what your personal style is, they will utilize a large array of products to create the custom design of your dreams.

The team at Classic Cupboards consists of professionally trained designers who understand the importance of tradition within the communities they serve, while also striving to help craft the designs of the future. Adopting a collaborative team-based approach with clients ensures the best possible planning and design outcomes. By utilizing a diverse range of high-quality products, every project is crafted with an emphasis on reliability, performance, and lasting value.

I wholeheartedly recommend Classic Cupboards to anyone looking to update their home. With a unique design approach and professionally trained team, Classic Cupboards can help provide you with customized designs to create your dream space.

Sincerely,

Charles Carriere
Strategic-Partner
Schooley Mitchell