

To whom it may concern,

It is with great enthusiasm that I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of King Kold. Starting as a father and son business to help provide people with cold storage for their beef, King Kold is now a fourth-generation, full-service food supplier.

For over 55 years, King Kold has been a fixture in its community, offering a wide range of products including fresh and frozen meats, fully cooked entrees, specialty portioned burgers, sausages, steaks, heat and serve items, pizza toppings, and much more. It is committed to providing quality products to food distributors, food service providers, and the families in its community.

The team at King Kold all share the values that the business was founded on, and each one strives to provide dedicated customer service that goes above and beyond expectations. They work hard to maintain quality and ensure all orders are completed properly before leaving. With a sense of family orientated values, the team at King Kold provides elevated customer service with a friendly welcome every time.

I wholeheartedly recommend King Kold to anyone looking for a trusted food supplier. Its commitment to customer service and exceptional products makes it an ideal partner for restaurants, food distributors, and more.

Sincerely,

John O'Connell
