

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend the Highlands at Westbury Townhome Association, a distinguished community located in Westminster, Colorado. This association exemplifies excellence in residential living, offering a harmonious blend of comfort, convenience, and community spirit.

The Highlands at Westbury Townhome Association is committed to maintaining the community's aesthetic appeal and functionality. Residents enjoy access to a range of well-maintained amenities, including a private pool, spa, clubhouse, and basketball and tennis courts. These facilities provide opportunities for recreation and social engagement, enhancing the overall living experience.

The association's dedication to fostering a welcoming environment is evident through its proactive management and responsive communication. By upholding high standards of property maintenance and community involvement, the association ensures that residents feel valued and connected.

I recommend the Highlands at Westbury Townhome Association. It offers an exceptional residential experience characterized by quality amenities, attentive management, and a strong sense of community making it a model for excellence in town-home living.

Sincerely,

Matt Nagy
Optimization Specialist
Schooley Mitchell