

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend the Church of the Living God, located in Galveston, Texas. Founded in 1976, the Church of the Living God has become an integral part of the community, offering a welcoming and inclusive environment for all who seek spiritual growth.

At the Church of the Living God, its mission is centered around creating a space where individuals can grow in faith and experience personal transformation. It achieves this by providing a range of services, from worship and teaching to community outreach. Its commitment to extending grace and support is also evident through various ministries and programs.

Led by Pastors Trey and Marlo Dowdy, the entire staff at Church of the Living God is dedicated and passionate. They have a culture that is rooted in the teachings of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit, and their vision of transformation, both personal and communal, is reflected in their growing congregation and the ongoing success of their outreach programs. They emphasize fellowship and nurturing a deep relationship with God, making it a place where members feel truly valued.

I wholeheartedly recommend the Church of the Living God to anyone looking to join a vibrant faith community committed to making a positive impact on individuals and society as a whole. With a strong leadership team, its great community will treat you like family from the moment you step foot on campus.

Sincerely,
