Adam,

I do not know what made me say yes to the cold call I received from Schooley Mitchell a year ago. I was skeptical for sure! I know now, it was EXACTLY what I needed to say yes to. This past year you and your team have worked for our business in a way I have not experienced before.

From day one, you have put our business and our values first. You have managed to save us 20% - 60% on our services, all while respecting the relationships we have developed with our long time vendors, and introducing us to new ones. The time and energy I have saved is invaluable! I love saying, "I have someone that handles that for me" when I receive calls from solicitors. That has allowed me to concentrate my efforts on the more important aspects of my business.

What I value most from our relationship is being your client. You continually to go above and beyond for us! From personally fixing our paging system, to connecting us with other business contacts that we could benefit from, or who we may be able to help, and following up to ensure everything is going smoothly. I truly appreciate everything you do!

I would highly recommend you to anyone! You are an exceptional person. I am so very grateful to have you in my circle.

Thank you,

Christina Duchini Mulvin
