

To All Business Owners:

JT's Liquor is your choice liquor store in Wichita, Kansas, with high-quality customer service and a vast selection of wines, beers, and spirits. This letter is to acknowledge the great service to us by Schooley Mitchell, specifically that of Rod Holter and his team.

Rod improved our telecom savings by 23.5% and I was credited $1200 because he found an opportunity on our billing by finding three televisions being billed that were never in use. In addition, he was able to lock in my pricing for 3 years, which is a big deal.

Rod said there would be no obligation on our part which really meant we would have a free audit. He explained that we always had the choice after the audit if savings were found whether to accept the proposal.

If you are looking for a partner in business with no cost who reduces your expenses and increases your bottom line, then Rod Holter and Schooley Mitchell is the solution. Rod Holter provided us a risk-free analysis and we appreciate his professionalism, communication skill, and overall assistance.

Schooley Mitchell continues to frequently audit our lines to make sure our prices remain low, and they always keep an eye out for additional savings. Thanks to them we can focus on doing what we do best - growing our business

I highly recommend Rod Holter and Schooley Mitchell services to anyone to save time and money.

Sincerely,
