To whom it may concern,

I recently had the opportunity to work with Schooley Mitchell of Noblesville to reduce my credit card expenses. The possibility of increasing our bottom line with little to no effort was appealing.

The team analyzed our credit card invoices to determine whether savings opportunities could be identified. The process was simple and it easy. We provided them with invoices and contracts and, from there, Schooley Mitchell did all the work.

When the project team presented their value report I was pleased to learn that they identified opportunities that ranged from 29%-60% in annual savings in credit card merchant fees. I signed off on the opportunity that was best for my practice and Schooley Mitchell took care of the rest.

Overall, my experience with Schooley Mitchell was excellent, and I highly recommend any business or organization to take advantage of their services. They are very professional and passionate about the work they do.

Sincerely,
